

Homemaking Guidelines

Welcome to Classic LifeCare!

Thank you for choosing Classic LifeCare to assist with your homemaking needs. We are committed to enriching lives through compassionate care. Please let us know how we're doing at any time.

Preparing Your Home for Homemaking Services

To ensure a safe and smooth service experience, it's important to prepare your home before our team arrives. The risk of accidents or misplaced items increases when health care workers perform tasks in an unfamiliar environment, especially without precautions.

Recommended Precautions Before Receiving Housekeeping Services

Safeguard Valuable and Fragile Items

Please store or secure all valuable and fragile items to prevent any damage.

Review Your Home Insurance Policy

Verify that your insurance covers any outside cleaning services for your peace of mind

Catalogue and Store Fragile Items

Make an inventory of fragile or valuable items and store them if possible.

Accompany Caregiver on a Walkthrough

Walk through your home with the caregiver at the start of the visit to point out fragile items or items that should not be touched.

Homemaking Guidelines

Things to Note

- Classic LifeCare is not responsible for any mishaps or damage resulting from our services.
- Clients are expected to provide their own cleaning supplies, including cleaning gloves, etc. All equipment (eg: vacuums) should be in good working order.
- Services are limited to light homemaking duties to assist with home maintenance. Classic employees will notify you and our office if a request falls outside of their job duties.

Homemaking Tasks Include:
